

Searching the Web with Kids!!!

Student Friendly Search Engines and Directories

CyberSleuth Kids

<http://cybersleuth-kids.com/>

An internet search guide for kids K-12.

Kid's Click

<http://sunsite.berkeley.edu/KidsClick!/>

Site is maintained by librarians.

Searching Tools from Tekmom

<http://tekmom.com/search/index.html>

Choose search engines and directories that are specific to a topic (history, biography, images).

Ask Jeeves For Kids

<http://www.ajkids.com>

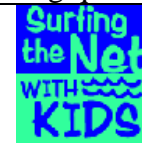

Searches done by asking probing questions.

Yahooligans

<http://www.yahooligans.com>

Kids' version of popular directory.

Surfing the Net with Kids

<http://www.surfnetkids.com/>

Created by a newspaper columnist and Mom.

Awesome Library

<http://www.awesomelibrary.org/>

This site even has a talking feature called Awesome Talking Library that reads the information to students.

EduPuppy

<http://www.edupuppy.com/>

A search engine specifically made for students.

http://directory.google.com/Top/Kids_and_Teens

Google's directory for Kids and Teens